Originally born in Concord, Mass, I am a 50-year resident of Ohio and 3-time graduate of the University of Dayton. I have been practicing law for almost 28 years, first at Procter Gamble and for 20 years now at GE's Aviation business. Railroads and railroad history have been interests and passions of mine since at least the age of 2. I am in my 25th year of NRHS and Cincinnati Chapter membership, and in my 20th year as Chapter President. I love to travel and have represented our Chapter at NRHS Conferences and Conventions since 1999.

Reasons for Seeking This Office:

The NRHS needs experienced members who are willing and able to serve on the Board. I bring 25 years of NRHS membership experience and 20 years of Chapter leadership experience. I served on the Board from 1999 until the restructuring, and since then on the Advisory Council. I currently serve as Assistant General Counsel of the NRHS and Vice Chair of the Advisory Council. In an increasingly complicated world with many challenges, especially for non-profit organizations, I look forward to bringing my experience and judgment to the Board, and representing District 5 and its Chapters, as we continue our journey into the future.
