NRHS Leadership Update

Submitted by Al Weber, President

What is your chapter doing to get new members? In the last year, I have asked this at several chapter meetings and chapter events that I have attended. I get many answers, but the best seem to be 'we have an active outreach to the community and a membership committee that works with other local organizations'. Many chapters try to involve all current members to help get information to potential new members. National can supply your chapter with membership brochures, Bulletin back issues and other material. Submit your announcements and events for the NRHS Facebook page. These postings reach a broad audience through social media. Also, the Society has a new NRHS.com website. Use it to promote your chapter, events, activities and meetings. Is your chapter data up to date on the site? If not, please email the correct information to webmaster@nrhs.com. Potential new members need to be able to find out about your next meeting, date, location, time of meeting.

Has your membership committee put up a display at a local library or school? Most libraries, museums and grade schools are always looking for a display at their location. It does not have to be much, just enough to fill a display case. Most of us have enough "stuff" (books, timetables, artifacts, artwork or prints, etc.) on railroad history in our homes to fill more than one case. Get it organized, provide a professional looking sign, and add contact cards or flyers. Make the sign work to your chapter's and the NRHS' advantage – include the NRHS logo, the chapter's name, contact information and the location of your meetings.

When you meet new prospective members, give them a warm welcome them and inspire them to join in your love of railroad history and preservation. Best regards, Al Weber (aweber@nrhs.com)

Extant Roundhouse Survey

Returns

Submitted by Richard Shulby

(Note: This article is for all NRHS Officers, Directors, and Chapter officers. Please include this in your next chapter newsletter.)

We need your help on a project of interest to the Society. We have resurrected the Extant Roundhouse Survey. It is updated to include additional properties and changes in status. Our goal is to expand this record of all the existing roundhouses remaining in the United States. This listing is possible only through the efforts of the members of this society.

How can you help? In every chapter there are members familiar with existing roundhouses. We are asking you, as chapters and as members, to compile and forward basic data for compilation, whether updates to existing listings, or new properties. The amount of data gathered varies from structure to structure, We ask for several levels of information in order to tailor each effort based on time available and the people gathering the data. The information requested consists of BASIC DATA (Level 1), INTERMEDIATE DATA (Level 2), and based upon interest and availability, DETAILED DATA (Level 3).

The Data Request Form and two versions of the HRSS Extant Roundhouse Survey are posted on the NRHS Administrative website (<https://admin.nrhs.com/>). The 17x11 version consolidates all the data on three sheets, and is simpler to use when scrolling on the computer. The 11x8.5 version is suitable for printing on letter-sized paper stock.

Completed request forms, corrections or additions to the survey, and questions can be directed to:

Want to be "in" NRHS Movies?

Submitted by Marlin R. Taylor , NRHS Film Archival & Library Committee

Most everyone loves Hollywood or dreams of being in 'the pictures'. Here's your chance to be famous, and maybe see your name up in the 'lights' of the mainline !

The NRHS has literally miles of rail-related film footage ready and waiting for a creative video editor. Do you watch old movies, looking for the railroad scenes and run-bys? Are most of your favorite rail travels done by armchair traveling? Are you an avid viewer of rail webcams near and far? Or perhaps you enjoy digital doodling, online rail simulations or restoring vintage rail photographs? Your NRHS Film Archival Committee welcomes your interest, skill and creativity ... if you are qualified and capable of helping ... we need you.

This "reely" big show of the NRHS includes an abundance of media, all related to railroads and railroading, such as

- Railroad promotional films (16mm sound produced in years past,
- Film footage from rail enthusiasts/hobbyists over the past 75 years, and
- Ongoing donations of 8mm and 16mm film footage.

As finances permit, films are being digitized for preservation, historical and educational application. However, video editing assistance is needed to increase the usability and value of the media collection.

This valuable work needs someone with an interest in digital and social media, and these skills

- Video editing experience, whether in school, as a hobby or career
- Have tools / technology for doing digital video editing
- Have a creative mind for taking raw footage and turning it into a finished, tightly edited presentation
- Are willing and interested in donating some of your services to benefit NRHS .

If you or someone you know has these skills, a creative mind, perhaps an interest "trains" and is willing to commit some of their time, we'd like to talk with them.

You or another member of your chapter may have a child or grandchild who has the capabilities of working with digital video + the "smarts" and some experience ... maybe/possibly one who creates YouTube videos that are posted on the Internet. Or possibly he or she is a college or high school student who could use such a project as part of their thesis or internship commitment.

What's actually involved here? Taking raw footage which has been digitized, reviewing the contents to determine what's good enough subject-wise and of sufficient quality visually, and then creating a finished production for either/or railfan/general public viewing.

If you are a person possessing the necessary skills and attributes and have a serious interest undertaking such a project . . . please let us hear from you by e-mailing Marlin R. Taylor <marlin@NRHS.com>. Thank you.

NRHS Bulletin Issues Available for Chapter PR

Submitted by Jeff Smith, NRHS Bulletin
Editor

We are offering boxes of 50 or 100 magazines to any NRHS Chapter that wants them for Chapter public relations and publicity. Each box will contain an assortment of issues. Boxes of 50 will contain at least two different issues (perhaps more) and each box of 100 will contain at least 4 different issues (perhaps more). The objective is to put these magazines to use marketing the society instead of sending them for recycling. Please reach out to Jeff Smith at bulletin@nrhs.com if you are interested in receiving one or more boxes of magazines. Please let him know where you want them shipped and how many magazines you desire. They will be provided free of charge. (National pays for shipping).
